

2012 Spring Break Getaway Passport to Adventure Pre-Auction Bid

The Opportunity

Stay at Jane Barton's Sea Colony condo in Bethany Beach. Minimum bid is $500. Google "Sea Colony Bethany Beach" for more information about the resort.

- Available April 2 through 8, coinciding with Montgomery County Public Schools spring break
- Two bedrooms, two baths (sleeps four people)
- One level, large deck
- Swimming pools and tennis
- Short walk to beach
- Easy access to Bethany restaurants and shops

Why a pre-auction bid?

The condo is being offered as a pre-auction item so that interested bidders will have more time to plan their spring break vacation.

How to bid

Bidding is now open and will CLOSE at midnight, Friday, February 24, 2012.

- All bids must be submitted by email to auction@cedarlane.org
- The highest bid received by the deadline will be the winner.
- If identical high bids are received, the bid with the earliest time and date stamp on the e-mail will be the winner.
- Submit your best offer—$500 minimum bid. Submitting an amount like $551 or $702, for example, will help minimize identical bids.
- The winner will be announced on Sunday, February 26, 2012.

Questions?

Contact Cedar Lane Auction co-chairs Kate Harrison at katekathie@cedarlane.org or 301-652-5018, or Mary Beth Nowinski at mnowin@aol.com or 301-949-9410.

Plan to attend the Cedar Lane 2012 Auction, Passport to Adventure, on March 24.

