June 2019

Leslie Backus, editor

The Alliance of Cedar Lane Unitarian Universalist Church is an affiliate member of the church open to all interested women and men. Its purpose is to promote programs and activities of a cultural and community nature that support Unitarian Universalist principles. In furtherance of these purposes the Alliance raises its own funds and establishes its own budget.

President's Message for June

I'm sure you've heard the expression "Life is not a destination but a journey." Ralph Waldo Emerson said it, but I learned it first hand from the Alliance. Thank you for allowing me to lead the Alliance "journey" this year. It has been my honor to serve as President and my privilege to work with so many dedicated and hard-working individuals. A special kudos to Leslie Backus for the outstanding job she did getting out our newsletter monthly. Thank you to our programs team for a year of excellent presentations. Lastly, I want to extend my deep appreciation to all of you who regularly volunteer with the Alliance and to a remarkable Alliance Board. You make the Alliance possible. Sue Woodruff

June Program: Presentation by the CLUUC India Tour Group

A UU Journey to India: In February, Rev. Abhi led a group of Cedar Lane pilgrims on a journey to southern India. More pilgrims than tourists, they explored cultures very different from our own, visited temples, mosques, and churches, and were guests in people's homes. A couple broke from the group and visited Unitarians in the Khasi Hills in northeast India.

When they returned, several members of the group highlighted what the journey had meant to them spiritually in a March worship service. They will do a more in-depth presentation on: What it's like to be in India; Unitarian Universalism in India; and Religious plurality in India. Wayne Mara

Pill Bottle Recycling Program

Thanks for the overwhelming response for the pill bottle collection for Matthew 25 Ministries! Now, however, the bottles for collection will be limited to the transparent prescription bottles and not the O.T.C. (Over the Counter) containers. Dottie Mara

Book Corner

The June dates for book sales will be June 9, 23 and 30. We should have a good selection of books so do stop by after the service. Remember, profits go to charities and the church general fund.

Helen Pechacek

Jewelry Sales

The monthly Jewelry Sale will take place on June 16th. Come find some lovely, very inexpensively priced pieces! If you wish to donate your no longer worn jewelry, you can bring it to the jewelry sale or to the Church Office other times (there's a cabinet in the volunteer room).

The First Friday Book Club—11 a.m. in the Library

The First Friday Book Club welcomes old friends and new. Bring a sandwich and socialize over refreshments at noon.

June 7, *Nora Webster by Colm Toibin. 385 pp. F (2015) In Wexford, Ireland, Nora Webster is widowed at 40 with 4 children and little money. Drowning in her sorrow and blind to the suffering of her young sons, she still has moments of stunning insight and empathy.

Refreshments: Jean Schaible

July 5, *A Gentleman in Moscow by Amor Towles. 466 pp. F (2016) In 1922, an unrepentant aristocrat is sentenced to house arrest in a grand hotel across from the Kremlin. As he stays in his room, history unfolds just outside.

Refreshments: Helen Pechacek

August 2, *The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas. 447 pp. F (2017) 16-year-old Starr moves between two worlds: her poor home neighborhood and the fancy prep school she attends. The uneasy balance between these worlds is shattered when she witnesses the fatal shooting of her unarmed, childhood best friend at the hands of a police officer.

Refreshments: Nancy Janssen

September 6, *Killers of the Flower Moon: The Osage Murders and the Birth of the F.B.I. by David Grann. 347 pp. NF (2016) A chronicle of the investigation of a series of murders of wealthy Osage Indians after oil is discovered in their land.

Refreshments: Barbara Lewis
